

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

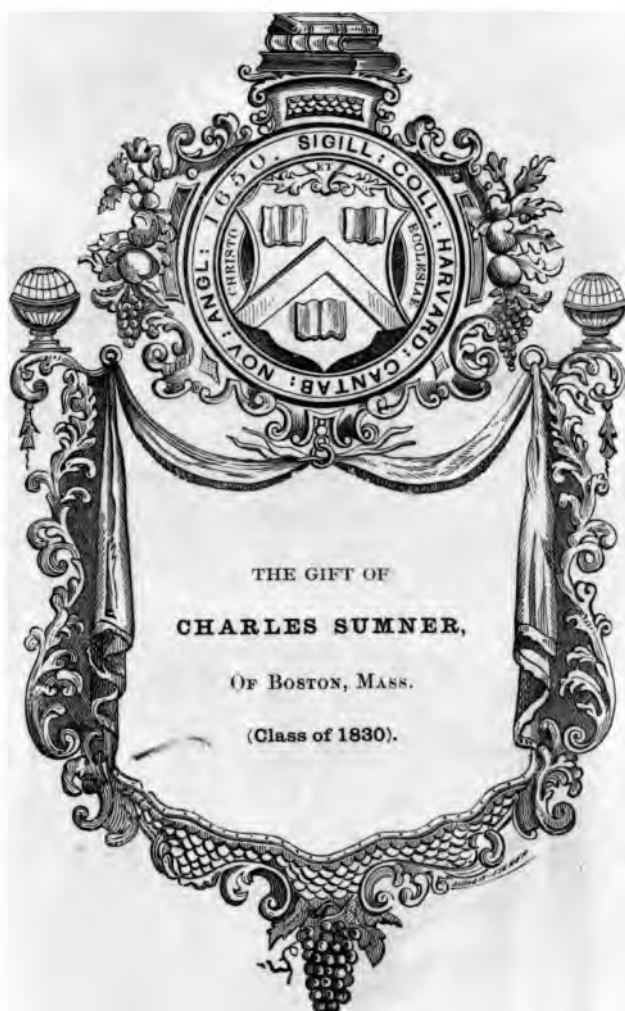

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. AN APPEAL

TO THE HONORABLE

THE

SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

COLUMBIA, S. C.:

PHOENIX BOOK AND JOB POWER PRESS.

1868.

1056311. 1080

1868, Oct. 1.
Gift of Gen. Chas. Sumner.

AN APPEAL TO THE HONORABLE
THE
SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES, IN BEHALF OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, AGAINST THE ADOPTION, BY CONGRESS, OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION
PROPOSED FOR SOUTH CAROLINA.

To the Honorable the Senate of the United States of America:

The undersigned, in behalf of a large portion of the good people of the State of South Carolina, respectfully appeal to your honorable body, to arrest the adoption of the new Constitution proposed for said State. In spite of the respectful remonstrance submitted to the House of Representatives and to the Senate, we find that the former body have given to said instrument their approval. For the sake of all classes of our people, for considerations affecting the peace of society, in view of the substantial interests of the State, put in jeopardy by an organic law, which may truthfully be characterized as a political abortion, the offspring of incapacity and prejudice and hate, we submit our case—the case of the conservatism of South Carolina—to the high court of last resort, the Senate of the country.

In addition to the arguments contained in the remonstrance paper, and in the address made to the Reconstruction Committee of the House of Representatives, herewith submitted, we respectfully invite the attention of your honorable body to the exhibits hereto appended, and marked "A," "B" and "C."

I. Exhibit "A" gives the items, and shows the amount of taxation provided for in the new Constitution. The State is now sadly impoverished. The property which her people had in their slaves has been swept away; it is true, given up by and with the consent of the State; nevertheless, that property no longer represents capital and value. The ravages of war, the marks of the conqueror's torch, are everywhere visible. The labor of the country is passing from one state to another, and is disturbed and demoralized. The flower of the commonwealth have fallen on the battle-field, and the broken fortunes and disappointed hopes of a proud people weigh heavily upon the energies of at least the old and the less sanguine amongst us. Yet, under these circumstances, affecting enough to touch the sympathies of every manly nature, and in violation, as we conceive it, of the political inheritance of our forefathers, here in South Carolina, we are threatened with the onus of a monstrous plan of public spoliation, under the guise of an equitable system of taxation. Under the forms of law, it is proposed to take away the little that the war has left us. "Taxation without representation" is combined with "representation without taxation." Thus, in South Carolina, it is contemplated to revive the tyranny of the British Parliament in 1776, and to add thereto a new and startling feature.

We refer you now to exhibit "A." Although South Carolina is struggling for bread, yet observe how, under the new Constitution, the burdens of taxation have been increased:

Proposed now to be raised.....	$2,230,950
Before the war, amount about.....	350,000
Proposed now to be levied on the real estate of the State 3 per cent.
Before the war.....	$\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.
But when there is taken into consideration the depreciation of the value of property since the war, the difference is far greater. For illustration, take the case of a piece of property, in a town, before the war, worth say.....
Levied before the war on this $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., making.....	50
Now, at same valuation, it pays at 3 per cent.....	300
Thus the proportion stands as 1 to 6. But this is not all: The property valued before the war at $10,000, has now a value of.....
Before the war, a tax of $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. levied on this would give.:.....	\$3,000
But to raise the $300 required now, demands a tax of 10 per cent.....	15
	300

Thus, taking into consideration the depreciation of the value of real estate, the proportion stands as 1 to 20, or the taxation provided for in the new Constitution is absolutely twenty times as great as before the war. Nor is this all. But in the case of land, which has depreciated more in value than city property, the proportion is even greater than the one established above. In fact, it is now a common thing to find large tracts of land sold by the Sheriff for less than the amount of taxes resting thereupon.

2. Exhibit "B" shows that the Constitutional Convention was composed of:

Whites.....	47
Colored.....	74
	<hr/>
	121
74 colored pay of taxes.....	$117 93
1 alone paying.....	85 35
	<hr/>
Hence 73 colored pay.....	$32 58
Or less than 50 cents each.
47 whites pay.....	$761 62
1 white (conservative) paying.....	508 85
	<hr/>
Hence 46 whites pay.....	$252 76
Or less than $6 each.

Of the 47 white members, 23 pay no tax at all, and of the 74 colored members, 59 pay no tax at all. Of the whites, at least one-fourth were Government employees and Northern adventurers, and of the colored men, a goodly number were from abroad.

3. Exhibit "C" shows that the Legislature, elected under the new Constitution, stands thus, exclusive of the Districts of Marion and Lancaster, as the Democratic success in these Districts is contested:

SENATE.

Whites.....	20
Colored.....	12
	<hr/>
	32

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Whites.....	37
Colored.....	86
	<hr/>
	123

TOTAL.

Whites.....	57
Colored.....	98
Whole number.....	155
Or nearly 2 colored to 1 white.

98 colored pay of taxes.....	$143 74
1 colored paying.....	83 35

Hence 97 colored pay.....	$60 39
Or less than 70 cents each.
57 whites pay.....	$491 49
11 conservative whites pay.....	194 43

Hence 46 whites pay.....	$297 06
Or less than $7 each.

Of these 57 white members, 24 pay no taxes at all. Of these 98 colored members, 67 pay no taxes at all.

With regard to the State Government: The officers consist of 7 whites and 1 colored—the colored man having the paid office of least profit.

As to taxes: The Governor pays.....	$00 00
Secretary of State	00 00
Comptroller-General	00 00
Treasurer	00 00
Attorney-General	00 00
Superintendent of Education.....	00 00
Lieutenant-Governor.....	15 99
Adjutant and Inspector-General.....	1 00

Making.....	$16 99
Thus the 8 members of the State corps of officers pay on an average each.....	$2 11

Thus have the Committee truthfully represented to the honorable Senate the character of the men, as well those who framed the Constitution, as those who are to legislate under its provisions. It will be seen that they represent not the wealth of the State, neither its commercial, nor its agricultural, nor its mechanical interests. That they do not represent its intelligence, its tone and its sentiments, may be regarded as a self-evident proposition, to establish which requires no argument. It is shown, also, how little interested in the matter of excessive taxation they will be who shall levy the taxes, and how very little of taxes they will represent who shall make the laws in South Carolina; and how small an amount, too, they will be found to contribute to the revenues of the State, who shall mainly—nay, almost entirely—sustain the new law-givers, which Congress has given to the South.

In behalf, therefore, of justice and fair dealing, representing the just claims of the white citizens of South Carolina, without further comments, we have the honor respectfully to submit the statistical argument contained in these exhibits, and to express the hope that it may appear to your honorable body, weighty enough to induce the rejection, at your hands, of the Constitution proposed for South Carolina.

WADE HAMPTON, JOHN P. THOMAS, F. W. McMASTER,
JOS. DAN'L. POPE, SAM'L. McGOWAN, W. M. SHANNON,
State Central Executive Committee.

EXHIBIT A.

An Estimate of the Taxes of the State of South Carolina, under the provisions of the Constitution lately adopted.

1 School-house to each 16 square miles of territory making 1,800 school-houses in the State, at $200 each.....	$360,000
1,800 Teachers, each at $300 per annum.....	540,000
1 State Superintendent of Education.....	3,000
31 School Commissioners, each $1,000.....	31,000
1 State Normal School, Building and Teachers.....	10,000
Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institutions.....	10,000
State Reform School.....	10,000
Conversion of Citadel in Charleston into an Institution of Learning.....	30,000
Educational estimate.....	$994,000
Current Expenses of State, according to General Canby's Tax Bills, is $470,000, less Free Schools included above $25,000, making.....	445,000
	$1,439,000
Add 5 per cent. expenses of collection.....	71,950
	$1,510,950
Interest on $6,000,000 State Debt from July, 1866, to July, 1868.....	720,000
Total amount of Taxes.....	$2,230,950

N. B.—The late assessment of real estate throughout the State, city, town and country, is \$70,507,075, on which a tax levied of 3 per cent. will raise \$2,115,212. If real estate owners are to defray the expenses of the State, it will require more than 3 per cent. to meet them. Formerly it was about $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., and that, too, when lands and real estate in general had not depreciated in value.
